

Hi, There should be truth in advertising and billing of wireless service. This rip-off has to cease as these companies blatantly lie saying the extra costs are going to the government. They should be compelled to have one succinct rate for consumers to compare. Thank you.